Statement from the Minister

*The Honourable Scott Moe
Minister of Advanced Education*

I am pleased to present the Ministry of Advanced Education Plan for 2016-17.

This plan details how our Ministry will support the Government's direction.

The 2016-17 Budget will keep Saskatchewan strong. We need to keep building the province. We also need to responsibly manage the peoples' money.

Though challenges exist, our priority continues to be investing in people and infrastructure.

Government Direction and Budget for 2016-17 invests in people and infrastructure to Keep Saskatchewan Strong, and initiates a government wide exercise of transformational change to ensure the sustainability of high quality public services delivered in the most effective and efficient way possible.

Post-secondary education develops our province's most precious resource - our people. Education supports economic growth. It helps employers find the workers they need to prosper. A strong post-secondary system is vital. It ensures Saskatchewan remains the best place in Canada to live and get an education.

The Ministry of Advanced Education will keep our post-secondary system strong. We will provide operating dollars to our post-secondary institutions. We will support students from cradle to career. The Ministry will assist parents saving for their children's education. We will provide students with loans, grants, and scholarships.

We will continue to offer a generous program of tax credits to keep our graduates.

I have five expectations for everyone involved in post-secondary education. Saskatchewan's post-secondary system must be accessible, responsive, sustainable, accountable and high quality. I will hold myself and everyone else to these expectations.

I will ensure the Ministry of Advanced Education meets these commitments. I will manage taxpayers' resources with integrity.

The Ministry will report on progress made toward this plan in the 2016-17 Annual Report.

 - ↳ $14.3 million for scholarships, including the Saskatchewan Advantage Scholarship.
 - ↳ $6.5 million for the Saskatchewan Advantage Grant for Education Savings.
- ⇒ Over the past nine years, the Province has invested more than $7.3 billion in post-secondary institutions and student supports.
- ⇒ In recognition of the fiscal challenges facing the Province, overall spending at the Ministry of Advanced Education will decline by $22.3 million, or 2.9 per cent. The majority of this decline stems from fewer capital ventures in 2016-17. This is not unusual. The Ministry completed the Trades and Technology Centre at Parkland College in the previous fiscal year and an expansion at Southeast Regional College has $2.2 million remaining this year. The Ministry also deferred capital spending at the University of Saskatchewan Health Sciences Building. Capital spending can vary significantly from year to year depending on the size and nature of the projects.
